H-SHI'S
ROUGH CONCEPT SKETCHES

WHEN I WAS STARTING MANYUUKI I ASKED THIS ANIMATOR WHO'S REALLY ACTIVE RIGHT NOW AND SUPER POPULAR, H-SHI, TO DO THE CLOTHES AND CHARACTER DESIGNS, BUT BECAUSE SOME THINGS CAME UP, WE WEREN'T ABLE TO USE THEM, SO I'D LIKE TO SHOW THEM TO YOU HERE.

HE WENT THROUGH THE TROUBLE OF DESIGNING IT FOR ME, BUT SINCE IT DIDN'T REALLY FIT THE WORLD, I COULDN'T USE IT. SORRY.

COULDN'T USE THIS ONE EITHER... SORRY.

Maybe this one's better?

For this work (your comic) I guess it'd be better to make it less detailed, like this?

DID HE EVEN READ THE COMIC I DREW...?

LOVE WARRIOR

In the world of "Manyuuki" the military level weaponry that would generally have been used against the demons doesn't make any appearances.

However, when I thought about the origin of this world, it's possible to consider that humans would have once had weapons capable of fighting the demons with.

This Love Warrior would be the legendary Anti-Monster Mobile Armor that the sage once piloted to save the world from the demons. It would've had a "Demon Sealing Reactor" built into it's core.

If this story were to continue, then I'm sure it would've come to teach "Manman" about love.
